

RAPPORT DU CRAPO

1. On April 22nd CRAPO organised a bus trip to Montreal in support of earth day it was a big success.
2. CRAPO open the Franco Ontarien Festival
3. The 2012 hot hair balloon festival was a big success. It was last year that Craपो participates at this festival. We will be concentrating our energy in new projects such as BBQ's for our membership and all the political parties.
4. The provincial elections in Quebec was on September the 4th and since the majority of our members reside in Hull, Aylmer and Gatineau, CRAPO decided to concentrate its energy in those ridings. On August 22nd, 2012, CRAPO organized a panel with all the candidates for Hull, Aylmer and Gatineau. We advertised the event in the paper and on the radio. On the 22nd, the media were invited to attend, all parties were present, and this event was a huge success.
5. On October 29th 2012, CRAPO sent letters to Steven Harper to invite him to meet with us so we could deliver a giant post card. To this date, we have had no response from Steven Harper.
6. Also on October 29th 2012, CRAPO sent letters to Le Droit and the Maire of Gatineau to express our discuss with the way the Hot Air Balloon Festival had been dealing with us connercing the freedom of speech.
7. The bus campaign is on its merry way. For two months, on 25 bus', the PSAC has an ad campaign against the Harper economic plan.
8. This fall, there will be municipal elections in Quebec. Craपो intends to play an active role in finding out what candidates will do to protect the local economy since the largest employer; the Canadian Federal Government is going ahead with its economic plan, which means massive layoffs.
